

Crystle & Max

writer NATASHA GARBER ~ photography SELECT STUDIOS

08.09.14 It would be hard to top Max's proposal to Crystle for sheer romance: The Belgian-born model alighted with his beloved from a chartered helicopter; then surprised the former Miss USA (2008) with his down-on-one-knee question in front of giddy friends and family dressed in T-shirts reading, "True Love is Crystle Clear." Yet the couple's summer wedding did manage to take romance to a whole new level, with a lavish 320-guest celebration set at castle-like Chateau Cocomar. Fittingly, the bride, who currently stars in OWN Network's Tyler Perry sitcom "For Better or Worse," was the very picture of a fairytale princess in her Lazaro gown and sparkling updo. And she has special praise for those who brought her regal fantasy to life: "The entire event was coordinated by [venue owner] Karen Martin and the Cocomar ladies," Crystle notes. "They planned and executed together a tremendously awesome event that will forever be remembered!"
